SOCIETY OF CLERKS AT THE TABLE IN KENYA

CALL FOR ARTICLES

SOCATT(K) Newsletter Thematic Areas;

The 2022 edition, coming at the culmination of two terms of devolution and beginning of the third term, provides an opportunity for reflection and taking stock of progress legislative as well as an avenue for projection of expectations and visions for the next ten years of devolution.

We therefore invite articles which reflect on performance of the legislative, oversight and representation role of County Assemblies under the following themes:

1. Knowledge management, data and research as legislative and oversight tools;
2. Impact of inclusive policy and legislation on county social economic development;
3. Citizen participation and stakeholder engagement in the legislative process;
4. Partnerships and Intergovernmental collaboration towards enhanced legislative performance;
5. ICT and technology in legislatures ( e-parliament; the concept, experience, and lessons)
6. Professional ethics in parliamentary service/legislative practice;
7. Work–life interface in intricate work environments (stress management and mental health awareness;
8. Personal finance management and retirement planning for Members and Staff of County Assemblies.
